

- 09.00 Opening
Matters arising from yesterday
- 09.30 EU level Projects – What do they involve?
Tasos Mastrogiannakis, Health & Social Care Project Manager, C.M.T. PROOPTIKI, Greece
- 09.50 Migrant and refugee women’s experiences of pregnancy and care received
Prof. Hora Soltani, Professor of Maternal and Infant, Sheffield Hallam University, UK
- 10.15 ORAMMA project overview and WP4 deliverables
Dr. Victoria Vivilaki, Assistant Professor, University of West Attica, Greece
- 10.40 Challenges for teamwork in refugee populations during maternal care
Dr. Maria Papadakaki, Assistant Professor, Technological Educational Institute of Crete, Greece
- 11.00 Coffee
- 11.30 Training during ORAMMA – Maternity Peer Supporters, Health Professionals, and e-learning materials
Eirini Sioti, Midwifery Researcher, University of West Attica, Greece
- 11:45 Demonstration of cultural competence training for health professionals - a practical session
Dr. Maria Papadakaki Technological Educational Institute of Crete, Greece; Dr. Petelos Elena, member of the ORAMMA Advisory Board
- 12.15 Interim progress report from the ORAMMA Pilots
Tsoutsis Vagioula, Social Worker, University of West Attica, Greece
- 12.40 Discussion
- 13.00 Lunch
- 14.00 ORAMMA implementation workshops
(10 mins presenting the resources followed by group discussions)
- 1. How could the feasibility project be implemented on a larger scale across Europe?
– Dr. Victoria Vivilaki and Joeri Vermeulen
  - 2. Utilising literature review and transforming into practice: Key principles into Practice Guidelines or Standards
– Prof. Hora Soltani and Maria Cutajar
  - 3. How can we implement the role and training packages in a wider context within EU for both Midwives and Maternity Peer Supporters?
– Eirini Sioti and Agnes Simon
  - 4. What is the value of developing cross-border e-learning packages and other resources for European level knowledge transfer? What are the priorities moving forward?
–Tasos Mastrogiannakis and Eva Matintupa
- 15.15 Coffee
- 15.30 Feedback from the workshops
- 15.50 EMA Highlights of the meeting/Summary of overall actions for 2017 – 2018

16:00      Thanks and closing
              Chairperson Agnes Simon